MAGI'S ASPIRANT STAKES.

The Harlem management presented a crackling good card yesterday, some of the best horses now in the west participating in the various races. The crowd was as large as usual and the racing the best seen at the track in some time. The course was lightning fast and the time was excellent throughout. The Aspirant Stakes, a dash of five furlongs for youngsters, resulted in a rousing finish between four of the starters and was productive of keen enthusiasm. Magi won in a desperate drive by a head from Emathion, which beat Nellie Waddell a neck, with Jaubert lapped on.

To a good start Emathion shot into the lead, followed closely by Jaubert and Magi. Nellie Waddell laid in fourth position here and was slow about getting into her full stride. Emathion continued in the lead as the stretch was reached, straightening for home a length before Jaubert, with the rest of the field well bunched.

Down the run in Magi and Nellie Waddell gradually closed on Emathion and then began a struggle that aroused the spectators to the keenest pitch of excitement. Magi clung to Emathion with great gameness and, under a vigorous ride, beat him by the shortest of margins to the wire. Nellie Waddell finished strongly and was probably the best of the trio as they passed over the line. Jaubert fell out of the contest at the stretch entry, but rallied in the last eighth and was knocking on the door at the end. Sweet Billie was beaten off from start to finish.

Pink Coat at the weights, was generally conceded to be the best in the third race a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at one and one eighth miles. Even at that the grand old Derby winner of '98 was as good as 2 to 1 in the betting at one time. He rewarded the confidence placed in him by his numerous backers by winning in impressive style. Canmore easily went into the lead at the start, with Hernando and Scotch Plaid in hot pursuit with Pink Coat trailing along in last position, but within call going down the backstretch, Canmore increased his lead until by the time he had reached the half mile post he had the advantage of three lengths over Hernando with the rest of the field close up. There was little change in these in these positions until curving for home, where Canmore had enough and Hernando assumed command. Along here Dupee called on Pink Coat and he responded with alacrity, closing on the leader when about the last eighth post. From here to the end he always held Hernando safe, winning in an easy gallop by a half length, with Hernando a head before Argregor. The last named finished strongly and made Hernando stretch himself to the last ounce to capture the second position. Scotch Plaid ran well for seven furlongs and then cried "quits." Canmore quit badly just before turning for home.

One of the surprises of the day was the defeat of Ben Battle in the fifth race, the gelding on his previous good form appearing to have a great chance of winning. He was the victim of an ill judged ride, however, or otherwise he might have won. Gormley made too much use of him in the first seven furlongs, and when he was challenged by Anthracite he had not an ounce left to finish with. He led by a big margin up to the last eighth, where he began to tire and it was an easy matter for Anthracite to pass him, winning by a length and a half, with Ben Battle five in front of Constallator. The last named had enough when seven furlongs had been run.

The day's opener went to Louis Esell's Landseer, which ran a splendid race, making up much ground from a poor start, and finally prevailing at the end by a length over Ravensbury, he finishing the same distance in front of Hermis. Landseer bore in a great deal on Ravensbury on the inside rail in the last hundred yards, but the interference was hardly enough to prevent the latter winning. Hermis appeared all over the winner at the last eighth post, but sprawled badly in the closing strides. Burnett Wallace made up considerable ground from a bad beginning and finished a bang-up fourth. He bears watching from now on in his class. Nat Goodwin ran well for half a mile only. Fullen ran an exceeding bad race.

The sprint race was taken rather handily by If You Dare, which was lucky to get off with a running start in an unwieldy field of seventeen. Crinkle showed him the way up to the last quarter, where he easily assumed command and was never afterward in trouble, winning by a length and a half from Natural Gas, she a head before School for Scandal, on whom John Grigsby was lapped. Natural Gas was all out at the end and would have lost second place in one more stride. School for Scandal finished stoutly after meeting with ill luck in the early part of the race. John Grigsby closed ground from the half-mile post and was knocking on the door at the end. Telephone Girl showed early speed.

The second surprise of the day was the victory of Banish over Brief in the last race. Van Hoorbeke set the pace up to the last quarter, where he began to tire and Brief jumped into the lead. It seemed to be the latter's race when a furlong out, but Banish came with a determined rush and, although Brief gave him a battle for a short space, he finally crossed under the wire a neck in front of her, with Van Hoorbeke third, a length away. The last named hung on longer than usual and is about ready to earn a bracket for himself when placed right. Chorus Boy ran well for six furlongs and then fell away beaten. Leo Newell ran as if short.

Gormley and Winkfield were fined $100 each by Starter Dwyer for refusing to break in the second race.

The Harlem Jockey Club stewards are investigating the bad race of Fullen and Alaska's last two contradictory races.

SARATOGA GOSSIP.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 13.—Barney Schreiber's trainer, Dick Williams, is authority for the statement that an offer had been made of $20,000 for the great Sain two-year-old Otis.

A new plunger, a Swede, named Noreen, is attracting a great deal of attention at the Metropolitan tracks this season. He hails from England and bets immense sums, often getting the worst of the prices. One particular instance was a bet on Madden's three-year-old Guileless, which started at Brighton Beach lately, where he bet $1,500 at opening odds of 5 to 1, while the closing odds were 15 and 20 to 1.

Mr. Whitney is responsible for the change in next Saturday's program, the substitution of a steepchase for the fifth race for two-year-olds.

Fairgood, who rode Imp to victory this afternoon, is an ex-outlaw jockey and is black as the ace of spades.

Thomas H. Williams, Jr., and Charles F. Price of the California Jockey Club have been here since the opening of the racing season.

John Bullman rides out the season of 1901 for Mr. August Belmont at a salary of $300 per month and regular fees for winning and losing mounts in addition. This crack jockey has been released by Sam Hildreth and will be free to sign with anyone after the present engagement lapses.

He is a stayer but looks big and high in flesh and should improve. Salesman finished strongly and is steadily improving. Kufa was very poorly handled and was being restrained and taken back on the stretch turn. Miss Mitchell is promising for a green one. The Bachelor closed a big gap and was going strongly at the end. He fenced poorly at first and lost many lengths.

Winner—B. g. by Star Ruby—Baby. Went to post at 2:54. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Honolulu broke well in motion and made the pace to the stretch, where he drew away in commanding fashion, suggesting great improvement. Playlike ran a fine, game race under a strong ride. Oclawaha did his best, but has gone back. Meistersinger put up a good race and made a good showing for a first time out. Fried Krupp was going well at the end. High Carnival may have been short. He is a good looker.

Winner—B. c. by Masetto—Sis Elmyar. Went to post at 3:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Musketeer outclassed the field, easily took the lead and kept it unextended from start to finish. Barbara Frietchie, off poorly, closed a big gap, was compelled to run around the entire field on the turn, finished strongly and ran in remarkably improved form. Paul Clifford was going very easily under a choking pull to the stretch, but failed to make good when called on and was evidently short and should improve. Sweet Tooth was poorly handled and lost a dozen lengths in the first sixteenth, which he made up and was coming at the end like a whirlwind. He had recently worked a mile in 1:40 flat. Rowdy, driving to keep up, was probably outclassed and should win when properly placed. Double Six got away all tangled up.

Scratched—(27167)Dr. Preston, 105; 27390 Annie Thompson, 101; 24946 Lady Georgiana, 101.

Winner—Blk. m. by Wagner—Fondling. Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Imp, poorly handled, was much the best and should have won off by herself. She is evidently in her best form. Smoke gained two lengths advantage at the start and O'Connor stole a further lead on the first turn, then took a strong hold of her and made a slow pace to the stretch, where both moved together with above result. Smoke may have been short. Admonition was in close attendance for three quarters on sufferance, and was distanced in the sprint to the wire.

EASTERN TURF TALK.

"Much fault has been found during the past week at Saratoga with the riding of certain jockeys. Water Color, J. B. Haggin's magnificent three year-old, which showed remarkable form when he galloped away with the $10,000 Brighton Derby, has been a big disappointment at the Springs. He has started twice, in the Saratoga Handicap and in the Travers Stakes on Saturday, and yet has failed to run up to form. In Saturday's race Water Color was incompetently ridden by Spencer, it is alleged.
This is not the first time this year that Spencer has been accused of incompetence by racegoers, yet it is freely admitted by almost every turf-man of prominence that Spencer, when he wants to, is the best rider in America.

"It is generally conceded that he can ride any kind of an animal, that he possesses good judgment, knows how to finish and is a general among the other boys. In view of this, therefore, it seems odd to hear that Spencer has ridden a horse improperly—and incidentally some heavily backed favorite. It is a matter of record that Spencer this year has ridden more losing favorites than ever before in his career. It has gotten to be a saying in the betting rings of local tracks that if Spencer has the mount it is a wise thing for bettors to stay off. It is not inferred that Spencer is dishonest, but it is meant, probably, that he has deteriorated in skill as a jockey and is no longer reliable.
Since Spencer was reinstated he has not ridden the same as the Spencer of old. Boys of no reputation at all have actually outridden the once great jockey with ease, so that his friends have come to wonder what ails him. The 'ice man' appears to be hoodwinked or is not in proper physical condition to stand the strain," says the New York Sun.

"In nine cases out of ten long delays at the post are caused by jockeys who deliberately prevent their mounts from breaking with the others and in that way help to tire out a heavily weighted favorite. It was Danny Maher who was accused of killing Banastar's chances in the 1899 Suburban by such methods, and other jockeys have followed in his footsteps. It appears to some turfmen as if there should be a more serious punishment for this offense than the mere set down of a couple of days or a week. There is nothing more exasperating to bettors who have backed a top-weight favorite when they see him fassing about at the post for half an hour or more than that and then to hear after defeat that the delay at the post killed him. Often the delays are blamed upon the starter, but in nine cases out of ten a jockey, who has private reasons of his own, is the one responsible.

"The charge of dishonesty lodged against Jockey McGinn by Trainer William Karrick for the former's alleged crooked rides on Lady Radnor at Brighton has been dismissed by the stewards of the Jockey Club. It was shown that the filly bolted and that the boy was in no way to blame. A close examination of the bookmakers' sheets disclosed nothing that could excite suspicion of wrong doing. Karrick's charge was nothing if not hasty. Because the filly's owners bet $4,000 on her and she was nowhere they were naturally perturbed. Mc-Ginn courted an investigation and his exoneration may prove to Karrick that it is well to first get the evidence before making the charge.

"Water Cure's performance at Saratoga last Monday, when with odds of 30 to 1 against him, he finished second to Rockion in the Saratoga Handicap, and incidentally beat a high-class field, does not reflect much credit upon his owner, Green B. Morris. During the last week at Brighton Morris allowed Water Cure to take part in two races, in each instance the gelding being a favorite, 11 to 10 and 11 to 20 respectively. On both occasions Water Cure was disgracefully beaten by horses that did not class with him at all. Yet the excuse was set forth that Water Cure was not quite fit. His remarkable change of form, however, when the odds were long and juicy, shows conclusively that whatever was the matter with the gelding at Brighton, there was nothing the matter with him at the Springs.

"The news that Clarence H. Mackay's noted Banastar has resumed work is a source of pleasure to those who have always followed the noted son of Farandole-Blessing. It is said that Banastar has lately jogged off several miles with an easy stride and that he begins to show signs of a recovery of his old form.
Banastar was a surprise to the talent when he won the Metropolitan Handicap last spring and under the care of trainer Hill, the horse may again make the public open its eyes wide to the fact that he is by no means a back number.

"Of the Saratoga meeting Starter Fitzgerald said while in New York Sunday: 'It has been immensely successful. The crowds have been large and the racing, especially that on Saturday, has been of a high order of excellence.
Those who are interested in the Saratoga track intend to make many improvements before another year. The turns are to be widened, as just now they are a trifle narrow. Saratoga is popular with racegoers and appears to be a fix-ture. In the Saratoga Special jockey Burns cut up so at the post and delayed the start in such an apparently intentional manner that I set him down for four days. One of the stewards was at the post with me and he said that Burns' behavior was outrageous. Goldsmith's victory in this event was very popular in view of the liberality of Mr. Whitney, the colt's owner.
Goldsmith is a splendid animal and a consistent performer. There are so many attractive features during the balance of the meeting that I believe we shall see some fine sport.'" showed her usual speed but was unable to stay in the last farlong. Montanic appeared like making a runaway of the race in the first half but quit badly in the stretch. Bellario can do Winner—Ch. g. by De Beauvoir—Lady Hope.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Landseer finished fast on the inside rail after making up much ground in the last quarter. He crowded Ravensbury into the inside rail in the last hundred yards, but he had the latter well beaten at the time and the interference hardly made any difference in the result. Ravensbury finished with determination and was much the best of the others. Hermis was speedy for five and a half furlongs and then tired. Burnett Wallace made up much ground and finished strongly. He bears watching from now on. Huzzah quit when the pinch came. Nat Goodwin showed early speed. The others were never contenders.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. If You Dare, off well, finished very fast and was going away at the end. Natural Gas was all out at the wire and just lasted long enough to get second place. School for Scandal finished fast and strongly. The never got clear sailing until the natural spread at the head of the stretch came. John Grigsby finished resolutely and ran a good race from a poor beginning. Pirate's Queen made up ground in the last quarter. Crinkle quit in the last eighth after an early display of speed. Emma R. got off poorly and made up considerable ground.

The latter showed the most early speed, but hung just a trifle at the end. Nellie Waddell finished with a rush and would probably have won had the race been a little farther. Jaubert lost some ground when turning into the stretch, but made it up in the last eighth and was running strongly at the end. The others were never contenders.

Anthracite, under a well timed ride, ran a high class race, closed resolutely in the last eighth and was going away at the end. Ben Battle was ridden with little judgment, which in a measure accounts for his defeat. Gormley made too much use of him for the first seven furlongs and he was all out when challenged by Anthracite at the last eighth post. Constellator had enough after seven furlongs had been run.
